Dear Sherri:

What a special delight it was to meet you during the Annual Meeting of Baptists in New England! I'm glad for the moments of fellowship that we had together. And, I deeply appreciate your presentation to the messengers on Friday morning. What an excellent actress you are. God has certainly gifted you to bring His message through the medium of drama.

As I may have mentioned, I believe that drama is one of the greatest instruments that we have to present the Gospel. I spent a lot of time studying drama and being in plays during high school and college.

Thank you for sending me the material about your youth center. I will certainly keep those facilities prayerfully in mind as we move toward the future--seeking to reach young people for Christ.

I hope today's a good day for you. May God richly bless you as you share His good news.

Peace and joy,

"Mary's Heart" is an engaging, dramatic look into the heart of Mary, the mother of Jesus. This biblical narrative is believable, informative, and inspirational. Sherri Martinelli, who has written the drama, also portrays Mary. Upon hearing and seeing her you experience the love of the mother of Jesus for her very special son. You celebrate with her the achievements of her boy as He grows into manhood and comes to realize He is the Lord's chosen Messiah. Most importantly, you feel Mary's pain at the cross as she looks up at the broken and bruised body of her Messiah.

I recommend this monologue to any group that desires to love the Savior more by seeing the love of His mother. As this drama is presented with excellence it will be a blessing to everyone privileged to witness it.

Dear Sherri,

Thank you so much for coming to our Tea and sharing with us your drama presentation of "Mary Heart". You have a special gift for sharing the gospel with your drama and your are a great actress too. Thank you for sharing your testimony and message of "Who am I to be used by God" also. Many of our ladies came to me and said how much they enjoyed having you share with us. It was a special blessing and fellowship.

I look forward to seeing you again at Mops, Sherri.

May the Lord bless you with many more opportunities to share and act.

In His Love,

Dear Sherri,

I just wanted to let you know how moved I was by your recent dramatic performance of your mini-play Mary's Heart. As you know, I love the art of drama with all its potential depth of communication on a spiritual level, and I have had the privilege of attending a number of famous plays and musicals over the years featuring major actors of the times. I have also had experience as a music director and arranger in professional evangelistic musicals in Concord, MA. Your writing and acting of your play was captivating on a deep soul level that convincingly brought to life a moment of New Covenant history from an angle that we tend not to expect or be familiar with: Mary's heart. With your totally committed and passionate acting, I felt that you reached a high level of art in its true Heavenly meaning: to glorify God in Christ by communicating from His Spirit.

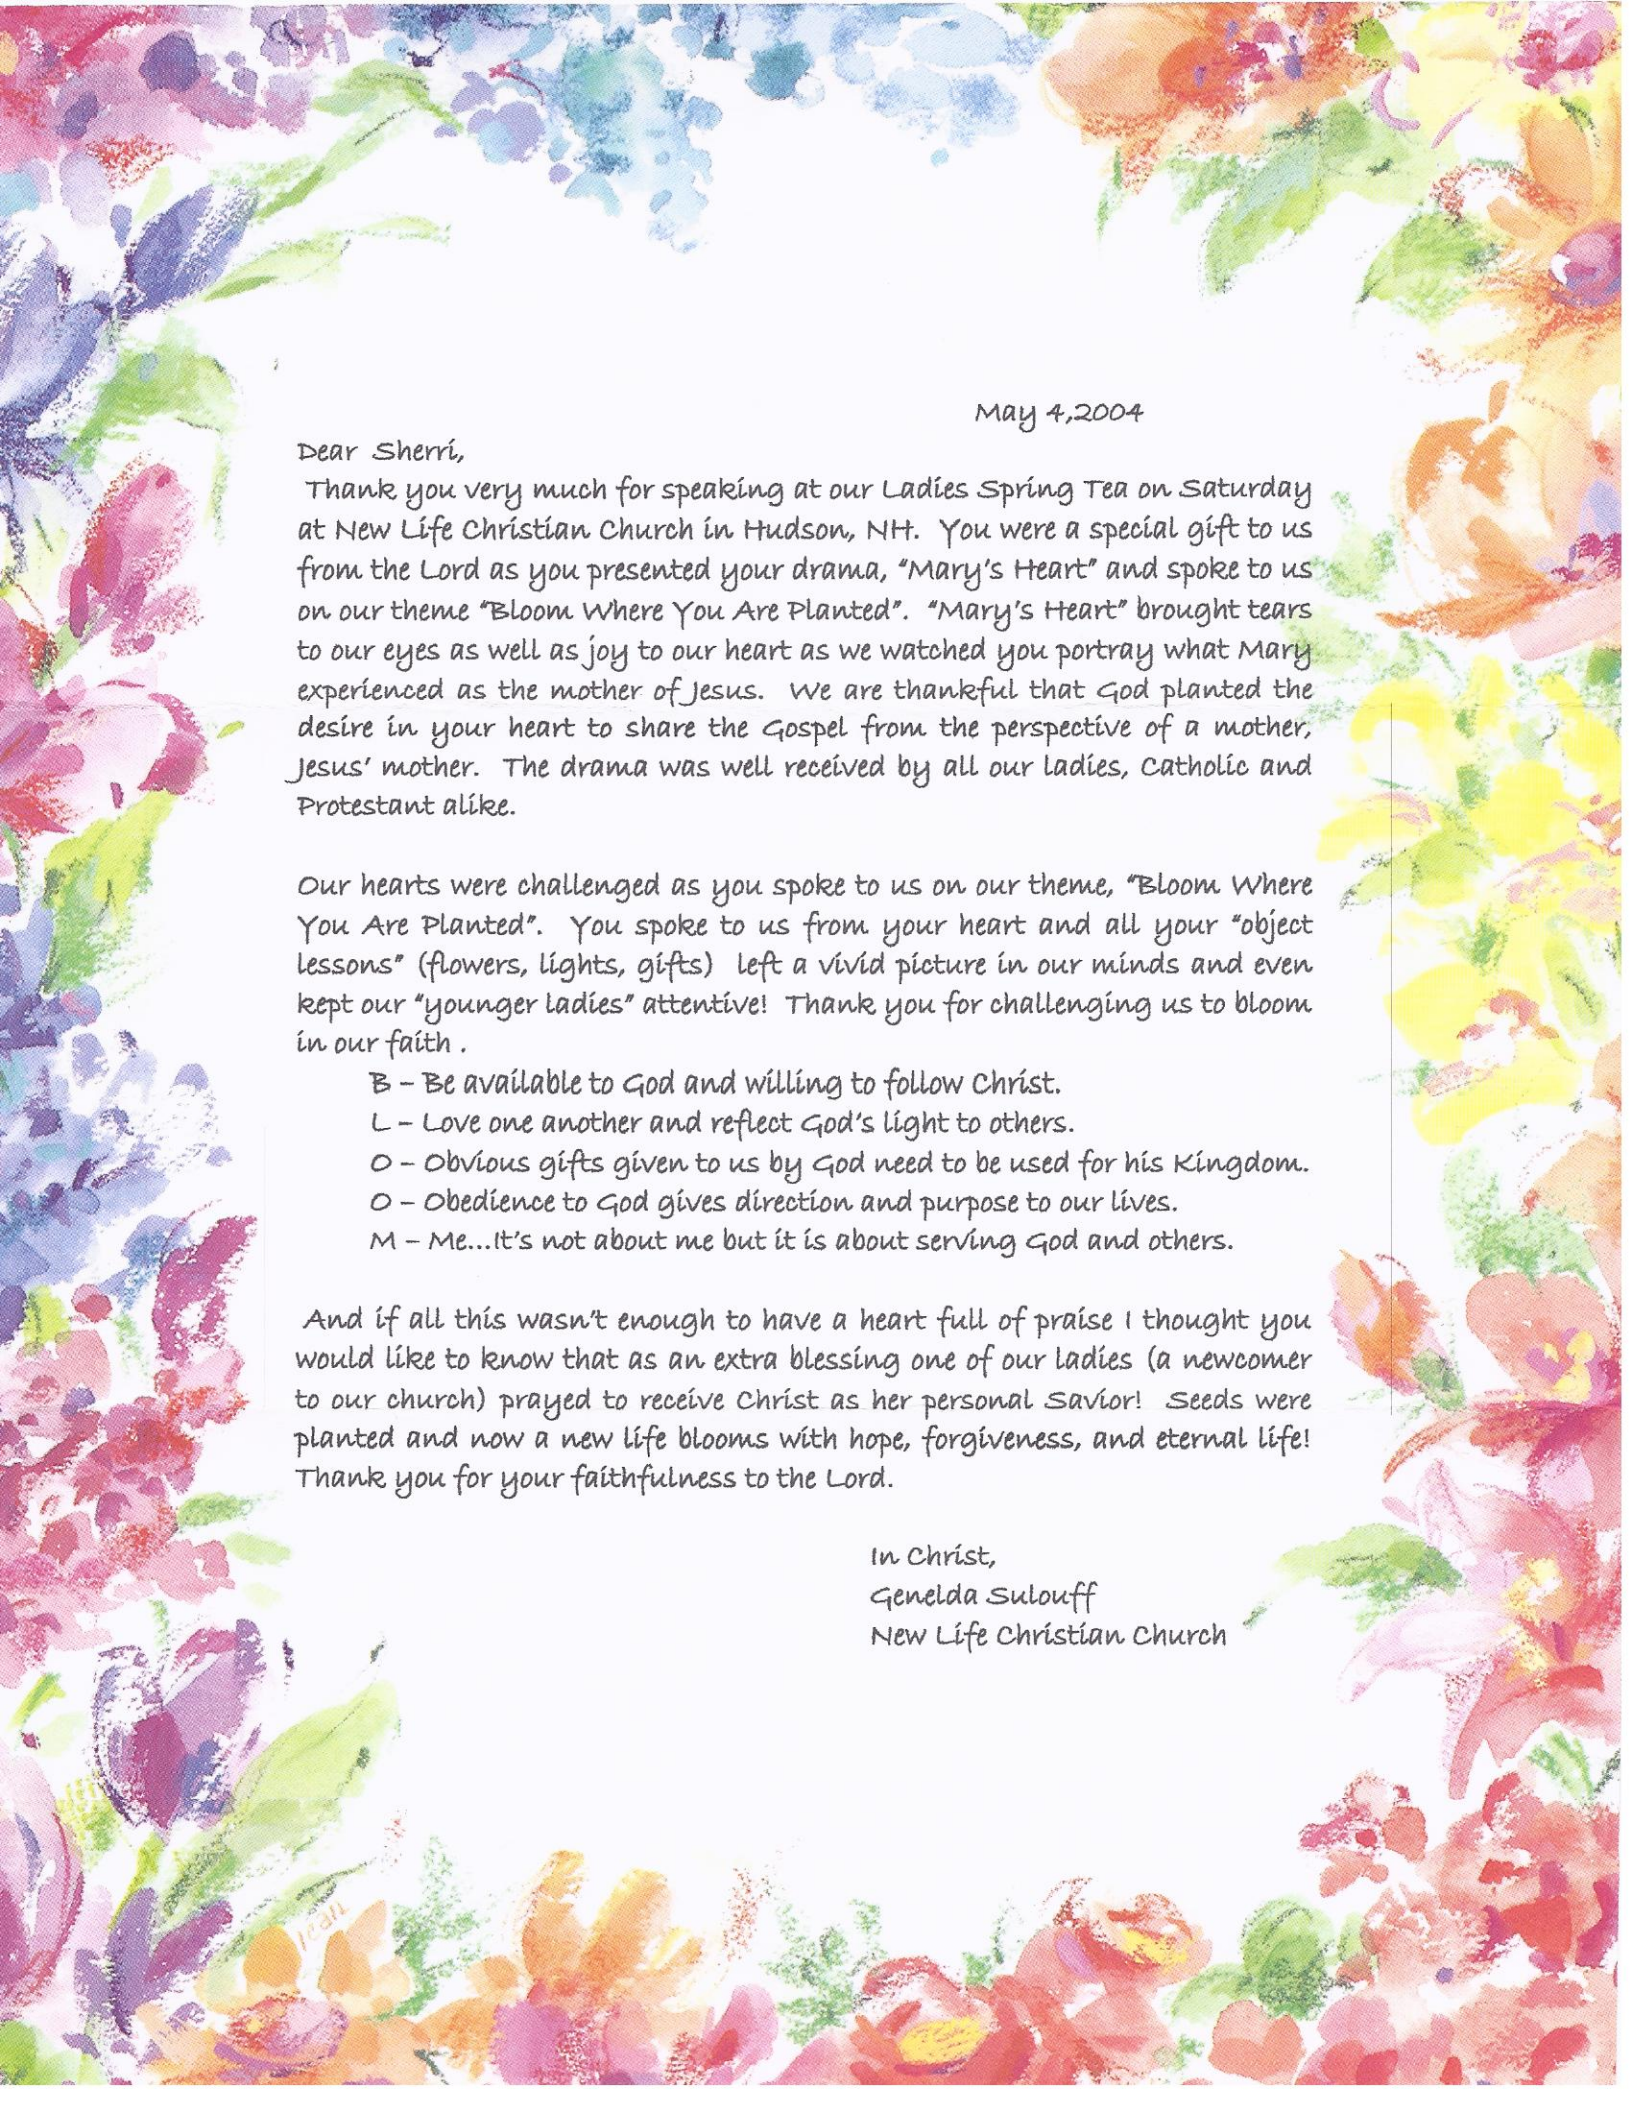

Thank you for pouring your heart into this! I look forward to seeing it again (and hopefully other pieces as well) and pray that many people will be led to the Lord Jesus and the New Birth through this seed.

Pressing on to communicate the Gospel,

Dear Sherri,

Thank you very much for speaking at our Ladies Spring Tea on Saturday at New Life Christian Church in Hudson, NH. You were a special gift to us from the Lord as you presented your drama, "Mary's Heart" and spoke to us on our theme "Bloom Where You Are Planted". "Mary's Heart" brought tears to our eyes as well as joy to our heart as we watched you portray what Mary experienced as the mother of Jesus. We are thankful that God planted the desire in your heart to share the Gospel from the perspective of a mother, Jesus' mother. The drama was well received by all our ladies, Catholic and Protestant alike.

Our hearts were challenged as you spoke to us on our theme, "Bloom Where You Are Planted". You spoke to us from your heart and all your "object lessons" (flowers, lights, gifts) left a vivid picture in our minds and even kept our "younger ladies" attentive! Thank you for challenging us to bloom in our faith.

B - Be available to God and willing to follow Christ.

L - Love one another and reflect God's light to others.

O - Obvious gifts given to us by God need to be used for his Kingdom.

O - Obedience to God gives direction and purpose to our lives.

M - Me...it's not about me but it is about serving God and others.

And if all this wasn't enough to have a heart full of praise I thought you would like to know that as an extra blessing one of our ladies (a newcomer to our church) prayed to receive Christ as her personal Savior! Seeds were planted and now a new life blooms with hope, forgiveness, and eternal life! Thank you for your faithfulness to the Lord.

In Christ,

Genelda Sulouff
